

Registered Nurse

- Ingle Farm, Morphett Vale & Campbelltown
- Nursing – Aged Care
- Part-time or Casual opportunities available

Are you a compassionate Registered Nurse looking to make a real difference? Join a trusted not-for-profit organisation where your clinical skills and person-centred care are truly valued. Embrace this opportunity to create lasting, positive impacts on the lives of our residents while working alongside a supportive, values-driven team dedicated to excellence in care.

Warrina Homes is a respected not-for-profit provider of Retirement Living and Residential Aged Care services across metropolitan Adelaide. Guided by Christian values, we are committed to delivering compassionate, person-centred care that promotes dignity, independence and wellbeing.

As a growing organisation, we continue to invest in our people, services, and facilities to ensure we meet the evolving needs of the communities we serve. Recognised as one of South Australia's fastest-growing organisations through the BDO Fast Movers SA Awards, Warrina Homes is entering an exciting phase of growth and innovation. This is an opportunity to join an organisation that is committed to continuous improvement, exceptional care, and making a meaningful difference in the lives of those we support.

The Role

As a Registered Nurse, you will play a key leadership role in delivering high-quality, person-centred clinical care that promotes the dignity, independence, and wellbeing of our residents. Working collaboratively with residents, families, and the multidisciplinary team, you will ensure residents receive safe, compassionate, and evidence-based care in a welcoming and homelike environment.

You will be responsible for overseeing and coordinating clinical care and supporting the delivery of specialised care, including wound management, dementia care, and palliative care. As a clinical leader, you will provide guidance and support to care staff, contribute to quality improvement initiatives, and help ensure compliance with the Strengthened Aged Care Quality Standards and organisational policies.

This is an opportunity to make a meaningful difference in the lives of older people while working within a supportive team that values excellence, compassion, and continuous improvement.

About You

You are a compassionate and dedicated Registered Nurse with a passion for providing exceptional care to older people. You are committed to delivering high-quality, person-centred care that respects each resident's dignity, rights, independence, and choices.

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- Bachelor of Nursing and current AHPRA registration as a Registered Nurse.

- Strong clinical knowledge and assessment skills, with experience delivering holistic, evidence-based care.
- A passion for Aged Care and the ability to build positive relationships with residents, families, and the multidisciplinary team.
- Proven leadership skills and the ability to support, mentor, and collaborate effectively with colleagues.
- Excellent communication, organisational, time management, and problem-solving skills.
- A sound understanding of the Strengthened Aged Care Quality Standards.
- A caring, empathetic, and professional approach, with a commitment to continuous learning and improvement.
- Current Aged Care Specific Police Clearance (or willingness to obtain).
- Flexibility to work a variety of shifts, including nights.

What We Offer

- An attractive salary with access to salary packaging (up to $15,899 for general living expenses plus $2650 for meals and entertainment).
- Opportunity to have a direct positive impact on the lives of elderly people.
- Experience a workplace that values diversity, inclusion, and the unique strengths each team member brings.
- Benefit from a positive work environment led by approachable and professional leadership.
- A great workplace culture where all employees are valued.
- Access to a confidential Employee Assistance Program.

Warrina Homes is proud to be a non-smoking workplace.

Don't miss the chance to join a growing, supportive team committed to making a positive impact in the lives of those we care for.
